

Yarmonygrass Festival Rocks the Earth

The high country camping event known as Yarmonygrass, features unrivaled mountain activities and top shelf national talent such as Railroad Earth (2 nights), Kyle Hollingsworth Band with DJ Logic, EOTO, the Contribution, and more. The festival takes place along the shore of the Colorado River in scenic Bond, CO on August 20-22nd, offering concert goers an experience that is as good for the soul as it is for the ears. $1 from every ticket sold will be donated to Rock the Earth. In addition, the group will offer an educational float trip down the Colorado on Sunday, August 22, guided by Rock the Earth Advisory Board member, Bob Lippman as well as other activities.

In addition, the group will offer an educational float trip down the Colorado on Sunday, August 22, guided by Rock the Earth advisory board member, Bob Lippman. Over the course of a 25-year career, Bob has been an attorney, a college professor, a river guide and an activist, with ongoing environmental campaigns involving protection and restoration efforts on the Colorado River, Grand Canyon National Park, and Glen Canyon, most recently focusing on issues of sustainability and watershed bioregionalism. Anyone attending YarmonyGrass who makes a qualifying donation of $250 to Rock the Earth is welcome to join us that afternoon. If spending time with us on the water isn't your bag, make sure to attend the Saturday morning seminar entitled Social Change through Music, hosted by Rock the Earth President, Marc Ross, and a handful of YarmonyGrass artists.
